Cloze Passage

Name _____ Date _____

The lady put her tiny little baby in a lacy dress.

The dress was cozy and was bright red like a ruby.

The cute child had rosy cheeks and shiny gold locks.

When she became sleepy, her mom laid her by a shady bit of green ivy to rest.

Name _____

When y comes at the end of a word with another working vowel before it, y will say long e.

Lesson 64: Last Job of Y

Mark both vowels in the words below. Divide each word into syllables, using Decoding Skill 1, and determine the sound of the vowel in the first syllable. Since y is at the end of the word, and there is a working vowel that comes before it, put a small e above the y, and mark the e long. Then read each word. The first word has been done for you.

Read the following thank you note. Then circle the Last Job of Y words.

Dear Lucy,

Thank you so much for the baby gift. That navy dress is so cute and tiny. I can't wait to put it on her. I hope I will be a good mom like you. Please come to see us anytime.

Your friend,

Suzy
