Cloze Passage

Name _____ Date _____

Naomi sat on her bed and wrote in her diary about her experience at the annual gymnastics competition in Ohio.

She wore her favorite neon green leotard to the gymnasium. Tumbling across the mat was quite a cardio workout, and the crowd was enthusiastic about her performance. In fact, she won the gold medal! As the champion, she got to stand at the podium and give a short speech. It was a fantastic day!

Name _____

When vowels are reversed, they no longer work as adjacent vowels or Special Vowel Sounds. Each vowel has a sound and must be separated from the other vowel.

Lesson 96: Reversed Vowels

ai/ia oe/eo oa/ao ui/iu au/ua oi/io

Prove and read the words. Remember to put a dot under each reversed vowel. The first word for each reversed vowel has been done for you.

ai/ia: The i will either say long i or long e, and the a will either be short a or a schwa.
